The Maldives

DID YOU KNOW?

- Maldives is the lowest country in the world.
- Ninety-nine percent of Maldives is water.
- Maldives, has a stunning literacy rate of 98%.
- Every element in the Maldives flag is symbolic – the crescent moon stands for Islam, the green section represents palm trees, and the red background symbolizes the blood shed by Maldivian heroes.
- Maldives is one of the safest travel destinations on the planet – the island resorts, specifically, since they are largely isolated.
- The word “atoll” is derived from the Divehi word atholhu, which means a ring-like coral island surrounding a lagoon. It is the only English word derived from Divehi.
- The Maldives has rich marine life, with over 2,000 species of fish, ranging from colorful reef fish to reef sharks, moray eels, and a wide variety of rays. The Maldivian waters are also home for the whale shark.
- Not only is Maldives the smallest country in Asia, it is also the smallest Muslim country in the world.

HAKURAA HURAA
Maldives

The Hakura Huraa Island is located approximately 148km from Male and is accessible in about 45minutes on a sea plane.

The Maldives is the flattest place on earth and the Meemu Atoll, where the Hakuraa Huraa island is found, is the smallest of the 26 atolls that make up paradise on earth with pure white sand, swaying palm trees, brilliant turquoise lagoon, a wealth of marine life and an overwhelming sense of romance.

Hakuraa Huraa means 'Reef above water'. What makes this reef even more special is the spectacular island resort that has been designed to complements the splendor of the island.

Snorkeling (Morning and afternoon)

With one of the best reefs surrounding the resort, snorkeling at Cinnamon Hakuraa Huraa is an absolute must. The resort organizes daily two snorkeling trips to the nearby reefs complimentary (snorkeling equipment included)

Diving

Hakuraa Island is surrounded by aquamarine waters with white sandy beaches offering an exotic tropical island experience in the remote atoll of Meemu. Diving in this atoll is a luxury due to its remote location and an extensive barrier reef offering diving to all levels of divers. Nearly almost every dive you can be spoiled by friendly turtles and shoals of fish in the inner lagoon of the atoll with relaxed and shallow dives perfect for learning and to be able to make your training dives from the boat on your Open Water Course.

Fishing (Sunset & Night)

Known to be one of the oldest professions in the Maldives, fishing is among the most rewarding activities made available to the active traveller. For the fishing enthusiasts with a keen eye, this experience would prove to be a worthy challenge to test the plentiful waters of the Indian Ocean for a remarkable catch.
